First I searched for ideas to begin sketching out on what I wanted to draw on how ICE is breaking amendments. I remember the Schoolhouse Rock video of “I’m Just a Bill.” There’s been a lot of joking about how we might need to make a new video since President Trump doesn’t seem to care to follow any rule of law or the Constitution.

I then decided to depict ICE having no regard for the Constitution, especially amendments 1, 4, 5, and the 10th. I decided to show the Bill from the original video sitting in front of the Congress. I then drew amendments that ICE ignores being trampled.

I sketched my editorial with a pencil then used color pencils to color it to match the original Schoolhouse Rock.

Then I scanned it and took it into Photoshop to get rid of a scan mark across the middle and scan marks on the side so it looked like the original.

This editorial cartoon took about two hours.
