4. Public Comment – Edison Red Nest from Alliance presented on lacrosse. He provided a brief overview and history of lacrosse. He talked about the benefits of playing and participation for the students in Alliance since 2018. He encouraged members to vote yes to sanction lacrosse as a new NSAA sport. His contact information: Phone: (308) 458-7795;
Email: wahohpiluta@yahoo.com
5. Motion by Bridgeport and second by Scottsbluff to approve the Minutes from the November 8, 2023 Meeting held in Alliance. Vote 25-0
6. Motion by Kimball and second by Morrill to approve the Agenda. Vote 25-0
7. Dr. Troy Unzicker provided a financial report and dues information:
  - We currently have over $27,000 in our account.
  - Troy read the list of schools that have already paid dues and encouraged others to send their dues via check to him at Alliance Public Schools.
  - Deviations for District Music: Mullen does not have high school music students and will not be participating in district music, Valentine and Thedford will be participating at another location, and Banner County will be going to Alliance instead of Scottsbluff
8. Reminder: NSAA District Meetings are member only meetings. Only District Members may speak to or address any proposal.
9. Reports
  - A. Board of Directors – Dr. Troy Unzicker, Alliance
    - Football schedules will be released on February 7, 2024.
    - Troy provided an overview on state wrestling tickets and stated that the process will be chaotic.
    - Approximately 70 class C and D schools have been experimenting with the shot clock this year.
    - He provided updates on some various committees.
    - Appreciation weeks for officials and judges are continuing.
    - There is a new program to honor coaches that have made a significant impact. Nominations are being taken at this time.
    - Troy is a member of the classification committee and provided a brief update/overview. He then asked Dave Hoxworth from Scottsbluff to provide an overview of the new classification committee which is headed by three AD's: Mitchell Stine, Matt Martin, and Dave Hoxworth. This group met via zoom on January 5th with around 40 AD's and Administrators in attendance. The group will meet again on January 19th. Dave also provided a brief overview and some talking points regarding the classification proposal that we will be voted on today by all six districts.
    - Dr. Unzicker provided some additional insight into the complexity regarding classification in Nebraska.
  - B. NSAA Staff, Ron Higdon: Thanked us for the opportunity to attend our meeting.
  - C. NSIAAA – Dave Hoxworth, Scottsbluff and Bec Ray, Thedford
    - Please let NSIAAA know if you plan on attending the spring conference so they can get a head count for the meal.
    - The next Board Meeting will be in Kearney next week.

- District VI has many new AD's with three years or less experience. Nominations for the District VI AD of the year will be coming up and information will be sent to members in District VI. An AD must have eight years of experience to qualify.
- Outstanding service nominations are due this week.
- D. Nebraska Coaches Association – Heidi Manion, Alliance
  - The track and field clinic will be held in early February.
  - State Cheer and Dance tickets can now be purchased.
  - NCA has a new all-time record of members. Thank you to the schools who register all coaches for NCA.
- E. Student Advisory Committee – Cordell Frericks, South Platte
  - Provided an overview of the recent and upcoming community service projects.
  - A huge thank you to all the schools that sent teams to the Sportsmanship Summit in Alliance. It was a very good event with excellent speakers.
  - Provided some additional information on upcoming meetings and events.
- F. Other NSAA Groups: None
