

Mercy Rule/Victory Margin

The match shall end when one team has established a 10 goal differential at the end of the first half or during the second half.

The margin of victory rule does not apply prior to completion of the first half of play.